Re: Participant of TeenEagle Global Finals, Miguel Kiasekoka

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is an official invitation letter to the participants to attend the TeenEagle International English Competition from 21st to 27th July 2024

TeenEagle stands as a prestigious International English Language Competition designed for students aged 8-18. The competition comprises two rounds: the TeenEagle Online and the Global Finals. The online round serves as an elimination phase, where participants must achieve a specific benchmark to progress to the global stage. TeenEagle is committed to fostering a global network among students worldwide, promoting collaboration, and engaging in international activities.

The TeenEagle Organising Committee is honoured to serve as the official host for both participating students and their educators throughout the duration of the event. Our committee is dedicated to ensuring a seamless and enjoyable experience for all attendees.
As part of our commitment, the TeenEagle Organising Committee will offer comprehensive support, including accommodation, tickets for various activities and attractions, three daily meals, and transportation services for both students and their educators during the event. We are pleased to inform you that all participants will be accommodated at Montclair State University, located at 1 Normal Ave, Montclair, NJ 07043.

We hereby confirm that the individual mentioned above has successfully completed the qualification stage and has duly settled the required fees in full. The specified student will be accompanied by an educator/supervisor, and in the event of any unforeseen circumstances leading to the refusal of these educators/supervisors, the TeenEagle Team will assume responsibility for their welfare and safety. Our team will diligently oversee their well-being, from airport pickup to drop-off.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require any further information via email at info@teeneagle.org or call us at +44 20 4577 0777.

Yours sincerely,

Director of Partnership
Cassy Gibson
